5th Annual Fall Festival October 22, 2017, 12-4, pm (Rain or Shine)

located at 131 Germonds Road at Germonds Park, West Nyack
Showcasing the Historic Traphagen and Budke Houses

Join the Revolution and Step Back in Time

Join the Revolution, the Glorious Cause! See how Militia men and camp followers of the American Revolutionary War lived in the 1770's. Heard's Brigade of the New Jersey Militia is seeking visitors to cheer on our encampment of 18th century tents, open-fire pit cooking, militia drills, musket firing and other living history demonstrations! Maybe we will come upon the British and those Loyalists!

- ▶ Horse Drawn Hayride (12:30-3:30 pm)
- ▶ Pumpkin Picking, Decorating and Painting
- ▶ Sheep Shearing by Fred Depaul. Demos on the history of sheep shearing (demos at 1pm, 2pm and 3pm)
- ▶ Children's Games and Crafts (Stencil Art, Writing with a Quill Pen and more). Come see what life was like for a child in 1791.
- ▶ Lace Making Demonstration by Mayra Petretti—Metropolitan Chapter IOLI, in north wing of Traphagen House
- ▶ Pen Turning Workshop, Hudson Valley Wood Turners, for ages 12 and up (pre-registration is appreciated, please email: Istambler@gmail.com)
- ▶ Hear the Witch of West Nyack Story by Dan Hanchrow (1:30pm and again at 2:30pm)
- ▶ Visit with Ben Franklin portrayed by Jack Sherry. Meet with Dr. Franklin and learn about his life as an entrepreneur, printer, author, scientist, inventor, statesman, ambassador, and one of America's Founding Fathers.
- ▶ Free Mini Golf at adjacent Germonds Park (pick up tickets at Raffle Table)

Enjoy, Music, Raffles, Food, Craft Demonstrations & more! Food Vendors and Refreshments for Purchase
